Talking & Walking - The City of Reggio Emilia

Duration: 2 hours (max. 1 to 3 people)

The program consists of a 2-hour Italian lesson held outside of the classroom, during which you will talk and walk in the company of a tutor. This is an interesting and unusual way to practice Italian while simultaneously improving your knowledge of the language in the simplest and most effective way.

The school offers various itineraries in and around the city to learn the most common shopping phrases and vocabulary, the most common everyday expressions, and the most common Italian idioms.

You can choose your preferred itinerary and topic from those listed to converse with your tutor:

1. Discovering the city's historic sites
2. Visiting artisan shops and a shopping mall
3. Evening aperitif with your tutor: meeting places in the city center
4. A stroll through the city to learn about and taste the typical products of Reggio Emilia's cuisine
5. Visiting the city's museums, exhibitions, and cultural sites
6. Cafés, restaurants, and taverns: breakfast or lunch with your tutor

7. Shopping at the weekly market: wandering the stalls in search of bargains

8. Crostolo Park: immersed in nature just steps from the city center

€80 per itinerary for 1 person

€90 per itinerary for 2 people

€95 per itinerary for 3 people

The price does not include any expenses for meals and tastings.

This program can be combined with one of the Italian language courses held in the morning at the school.
